OUR MOTTO

Let Your Light Shine

OUR VISION

Intellectually alert and open, emotionally well balanced, morally upright, spiritually sound and eco-conscious humanity.

OUR MISSION

To provide each student with quality education in a safe and supportive environment that promotes self-discipline, motivation and excellence in learning.

Spirit and soul of St. Anne's Convent School

"Sometimes all it takes is just one prayer to change everything."

"Shine your own light. Follow your own path "

"Let us run to Mother Mary and as her little children cast ourselves into her arms with perfect confidence."

May God's presence be with all of you and bless you with His peace."

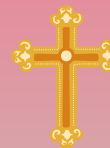

I am glad to know that St Anne's Convent School Sector - 32, Chandigarh is bringing out its Annual School Magazine "The Annean Chrysalis-2019". The roots of education are bitter but the fruit is sweet says Aristotle. It is very true that difficulties in studies seem to be bitter but for the ones who work hard the fruits await them. Education is given to the students from the institution so that the former may bear fruits.

Anatole France says that an education isn't how much you have committed to memory, or even how much you know. It's being able to differentiate between what you know and what you don't. Education should help the students to differentiate the good and the bad and it should enable one to be humble to learn what one does not know as well. Whatever one learns, one needs to put into use for the benefit of the humanity at large. I am sure, the students of St. Anne's learn to use whatever they receive from the institution for the betterment of the society. School magazine is a platform for the students to bring out all their hidden talents and help each other to know more and more.

I appreciate the service rendered by the Management, Staff and Students of St. Anne's Convent School to the people of Tricity and its vicinity and wish all of you every success and God's manifold blessings.

Yours Sincerely in Christ.

Our Guiding Light

From the Manager's Desk

St. Anne's Convent School, Sector 32 Chandigarh is bringing out its Annual Magazine "The Annean Chrysalis-2019". Albert Einstein once said, "Intellectual growth should commence at birth and cease only at death" Thirst for learning and knowing needs to be cultivated and nurtured from the beginning and needs to be carried out throughout one's life. These days, the children are very quick in learning and they have better facilities and infrastructure as well. The parents too need to teach the children the right things. The age-old family and cultural ethos need to be inculcated in the hearts of the children. Our mother land is known for hospitality, concern for brethren, tolerance, prompt to help the needy which are the essentials in the society and these need to be taught by the parents and more than that the educational institution needs to teach these to our children. Mere academic knowledge is not sufficient; one has to go beyond to learn the good moral values and virtues taught in the school. Once the students learn these virtues and values, then comes the contentment that the education given by the institution will come to its fulfillment. I am certain and sure that St. Anne's school imparts all these values and virtues to the students.

Annean Chrysalis provides opportunities for the students to express and exercise God given qualities in the literary spheres. Children are endowed with different qualities and talents and when opportunities are created, they show these talents. Let every Annean shine out in exhibiting his/her talents and capabilities through his/her contribution to Annean Chrysalis.

I congratulate the Management, Staff and Students of St. Anne's Convent School, Sector 32 Chandigarh and wish all of you every success and God's manifold blessings in this academic year.

Yours Sincerely in Christ

Fr. Robert Fernandez
Manager

From the Principal's Desk

Dear Anneans,

I am very pleased to announce the launch of the first edition of our school's e-magazine 'Chrysalis 2019-2020'.

Every child is potentially the light of the world. The purpose of education is to ignite the spark of inspiration within the child so that they can fly with wings of fire and seek new heights.

Unfortunately, in the present scenario; education is nothing more than a degree and marks. Marks have spoiled the true performance of the generation. Moreover, the children are burdened with the expectation of their parents and teachers.

Robert M. Hutchins says "Education is not to reform students or amuse them or to make them expert technicians. It is to unsettle their minds, widen their horizons, inflame their intellects and teach them to think straight, if possible."

The upbringing of a child is the dual responsibility of the parents and the educators. Until and unless this responsibility is successfully shouldered by the educators as well as the guardians, we will fail to prepare the students for upcoming challenges. The goal should be to train the children to plan, practice and perform from the very beginning and prepare them to face life.

Parents are the most strengthening power in moulding the future of a child. Their consistent support empowers us to do more and more. I sincerely pay my gratitude to them for their faith in us.

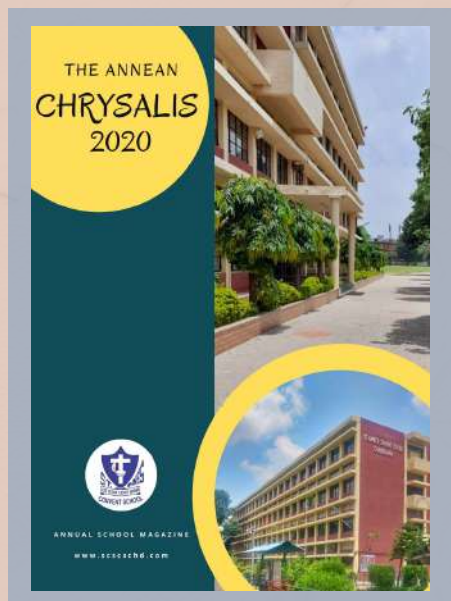

This e-magazine is the outpouring of the innate talents and potentialities of every blooming Annean. It also serves as a record of the events, activities and achievements of the school year 2019-20. Hence, Chrysalis is a milestone that marks our growth, unfolds our imagination and gives life to our thoughts and aspirations. I congratulate the editorial team for their hard work and dedication that has resulted in the launching of this school e-magazine.

May God bless us.

As a child enters the portals of St. Anne's, the Chrysalis or the journey begins--of nurturing and transformation—"in a safe and supportive environment that promotes self-discipline, motivation and excellence in learning."

The glow on a child's face, the sparkle in their eyes, the subtle smile of accomplishment that comes from having explored and learned something on their own--this learning is indeed magical. It is these magical moments that we have captured and presented to you in a kaleidoscope of literary and visual events.
'Always have an attitude of gratitude.'

We take this opportunity to thank our esteemed principal, Dr. Sr. Shyni Paul for her encouragement, support and valuable inputs, all the staff members for their cooperation and all those who contributed their talents in making 'The Annean Chrysalis 2019-2020' a success.

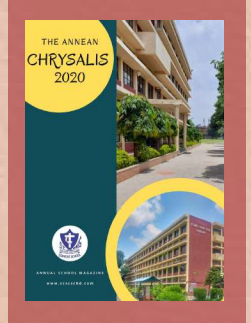

A big 'Thank You' to Mrs. Sonia, without her help and guidance we would not be able to present this e-magazine.

We hope you experience the joy of Chrysalis, a journey, an awakening...

Yours sincerely

CONFESSIONS OF AN ARMY BRAT

So what is our life like?? Here are a few confessions from an army brat. NO! That doesn't mean that I'm spoilt or an ill mannered child! I'm an Army Brat, " Born , Raised And Transferred "

We are a typical tribe. There are certain attributes unique to us and our families. Let me tell you.

What the people around us see are amazing parties, fine dining in the mess, enjoying discounts too good to be true at military canteens and free medical facilities. What people don't know about us is the brave face our mothers put up when deep inside they are terrified for the safety of their husbands. Single parenting and multi-tasking are the biggest challenges and trust me, it's more arduous than it sounds.

We just don't get enough opportunities to stay together because that's how life in fauj is. We look forward to the times when our father would take leave and we would spend time together as a family. May be just twice a year.

And that is the time we get pampered the most by our father who just wants to make up for all the times that he's missed with us.

Though peace postings are a different ball game altogether.

On a lighter note, you get to learn so many terms when Dad is around. Fauji lingo is one of its kind. From BPT, ROGER, ADM Bandobast, Detailment, Fall-in, AWWA..... Courses named YOs, WCC, TSOC, DSSC, JC, HC etc. to even exams like Part B , Part D , to name some. Whoever said studies ended after being in the army was a big time liar.

There are n number of uniforms that officers have-- Games dress, number one dress, number two dress, combat dress, SD, 6Alpha, 6Bravo, Blue Patrol, {Pheww!!} and many more. Even mom has a hard time catching up with his precision and time management to change into a dress from morning to evening.

Infact going to a party is a "parade". Dining ins, dining outs, corps days {read as core} are the formal parties which children are banned from attending. Postings in army can be at the weirdest of places like Lalgadjatta {Rajasthan} , Tenga and Pasighat {north-east}, Likhabali, Rangiya, Lansdowne.....etc.

As army kids we learn our A,B,C,D.....as Alpha, Bravo, Charlie, Delta, Echo. It is never 5 a.m. it's 0500 hrs.

Dad is a pro at eating rice with a fork and also use the fork to push the dal and veggies to the roti. That's just how all officers eat and expect us too, to 'open' and 'close' our plates with complete table manners.

And how can I forget to mention the part that I get most teased upon !!!! the DHAI TON --- it's the olive green open tent like covered truck which is my unique school bus.{an inseparable part of any army kid}

Another interesting and crucial part in our lives is played by the fauji barber, who comes home every few days to give our dad a haircut and that is when we as kids also end up bearing the brunt of his scissors and thereby most of the army brats end up looking alike after a hair cut as the barber is an expert at the crew cut-- the only style he knows.

There are endless number of "Shoes and Caps" found in an army household. Stomping around the house in your dad's boots and saluting everyone around you are the most cherished memories as a child. My stories are endless, and I can narrate each one with equal pride and love. Yes it is difficult being away from my father, not seeing him for months. But that's life for us and we pack years up in black painted boxes and move to a new place to start all over again. That's the beauty of this organization and I appreciate its value like no one else.

“School is a building which has four walls with tomorrow inside”

Memories of this temple of learning are like golden pearls in the string of past for me. This is not just a school for me; it is a miniature version of the enthralling world filled with uncountable spirits of prodigies. Twenty-six alphabets of English are incontrovertibly insufficient to describe the love St. Anne's family has given to thousands of little seraphs including me. Here teachers are not conventional theoretical educators but epitomes of tenderness who are exalted when they see us learn from their experiences. During their lectures, Anneans are frequently transferred to another amazing world where poems, concepts of science, fundamentals of mathematics and technology are exemplified beyond the textbooks.

The exclusivity of learning in a convent school lies in the moral values we inherit from Our Lordship Bishop, our Respected Sisters and Reverend fathers. Compulsory morning and afternoon prayers, praying for the society and our earth, involving the whole school to pray for an upcoming event or for those facing nature's wrath, enchanting of hymns every weekend, during assemblies, showing gratitude towards God after successful completion of each event are ceremonies which make my esteemed institution exceptional.

With their humble lifestyle and wholehearted commitment towards every responsibility entrusted on them, our Reverend Fathers and Respected Sisters are truly our guiding lights and motivating force who are instrumental in letting us take the most important decisions of our life wisely.

Guided and nurtured with positive dispositions towards learning I am blessed to have charismatic and diligent teachers, L.A. in-charges, sports teachers, club in-charges, dance, Art and Craft faculty who not only motivate me at every beginning but whose emboldening positivity and encouragement every time help me out to come up with flying colours. Camaraderie with their students is admirable which makes them perfect mentors. Every word they say, every class they take, every paper they grade goes on to change lives

Our teachers emphasize that your minds are like empty walls and schooling is the only time when you can best paint it with colours of knowledge.

St. Anne's truly sparkles up to its mission of providing each student with quality education in a safe, supportive environment that promotes self-discipline, motivation and excellence in learning.

Ever smiling and ready to serve our needs our Helpers are available at every call. We are ensured of our safety by eagle eyes of our Gatekeeper who keeps a vigil on movements of people in and out of the campus.

Anneans are fortunate to grow in an institution with ample infrastructure including well equipped and huge auditorium, high-tech labs, smart classrooms, eco-friendly waste disposal system, buses equipped with GPS tracking mechanism and a ground with plenty of space to execute numerous activities simultaneously.

Exhibition, carnival, club shows and PDC held annually provide an excellent opportunity to enhance our basic competence and capabilities. Every year we wait for one of our most favourable event, fete on children's day, a special gift to students by school authorities. We interact, enjoy and feel all the more admired as teachers, office staff take on the whole charge of getting us involved in various activities in stalls.

Visit to nearby villages and slum for cleanliness drive accompanied by our teachers provides a chance to serve our community which inculcates in us a sense of responsibility to give back to our society and we feel all the more determined to see how our small gestures and little time taken out for them during our school hours brings a few moments of joy to them.

Various intra and interschool competitions including extracurriculars, sports, computer and library activities, few open and a few compulsory competitions ensure learning and growth opportunity for every child. The spectrum of competitions and activities available patiently channelise the hyperactive energy in the right direction, giving us strong foundation to be confident.

Appreciating the efforts when we lose and applauding unmatched performance are the invaluable minute yet significant feelings that I learnt here. Unity with which the whole school works as a single family to put up a great show is worthy of admiration.

St. Anne's alumni are truly an inspiration for every Annean who tries to reach for the sky. Every Annean would agree that their school is the most important and integral contributor in the making them what they are.

“Thanks for giving our little one big dreams” is a common phrase teachers hear on every parent teacher meeting. St. Anne's family has etched its mark by sheer dedication, unwavering support, encouragement, and motivation towards children.

The platform, the Opportunities, the Challenges, the Environment and most importantly the Education imparted is a deeply gratifying experience. It is an absolute pleasure to be associated with St. Anne's Convent School. My journey with St. Anne's began as a toddler entering in the year 2007 to a young, confident and bright student in 2019- ready to face the world.

TRY, TRY, TRY AGAIN

This is the most common phrase of my Daadu and Dadi. They always taught me about the policy of try, try and try again.

They often told me stories of many successful people who used this policy like Pele, Abdul Kalam, Bruce Lee and many more. This is also one of the reasons that they inspired me to join Scout and guide. My Dadi told me that 'Winners are not those who never fail but those who never quit'. If we are unsuccessful in any venture then we should not loose heart but try again because by trying again and again the tough things are seen to be easier and we get comfortable in solving them.

And APJ Abdul Kalam has also said and I quote 'We should never quit and we should not allow problems to defeat us.' In the end I will just say that if we want to be successful, we must try, try and try again.

Jayesh IV -A

TRY, TRY BUT DON'T CRY

As the topic says try, try but don't cry. When you do something new, try your best. It is a bit difficult at first but as you try, it gets easier. If you are cooking food and it burns, you should not cry but try once more. If you still fail, try again. No one is perfect, everyone fails.

Then everyone tries once again. Try, try but don't cry.

Like the freedom fighters fought for our country's independence, no one accepted defeat. We still got our freedom. Once, a friend of mine got 5/10 in her test. She tried once again and got 8/10. See? She improved because of trying. If she still cried and cried, she would have gotten even less marks. You get nothing by crying. You just get the less of what you have. On our sports day, one of my friends fell at the beginning of the race, I told her, "It's okay, try again, even if you feel bad, try again, you might succeed". So, always try and don't cry.

Samhita Iyer IV- D
