SC Judgement : The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has held in the case of Society for Unaided Private Schools of Rajasthan v/s U.O.I. & Others Writ Petition (C) No. 95 of 2010, that the provisions of the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education, Act 2009 (RTE) shall not apply to Unaided Minority Educational Institutions. The National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions, Government of India, New Delhi has declared St. Anne's Convent School, managed by the Simla Chandigarh Educational Society, Chandigarh, India, to be a Minority Educational Institution within the meaning of Section 2(g) of the NCMEI Act. St. Anne's Convent School, Sector 32, Chandigarh, therefore, being a certified Christian Minority, Unaided Educational Institution, does not have to reserve 25% seats for the E.W.S. (Economically Weaker Section) as mandated in the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education, Act 2009.

Being a Christian Minority Educational Institution and in imitation of Jesus, who made a preferential option for the poorest of the poor of society, the school has independently been educating children from the E.D.G (Economically Disadvantaged Group) since 1977 and currently has nearly 200 students from this category in the school. Kindly Note: This is an entirely voluntary exercise as the school being a Christian Minority, Private, Unaided school does not come under the purview of the RTE in the matter of 25% reservation for seats for E.D.G.
